New Year, New Songs

Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth. Psalm 96:1

I am not a big fan of New Year’s resolutions. Over the years I’ve discovered that the resolutions I tend to come up with are usually rash and have a surreal quality about them. My “resolution rut” goes like this: I spend time setting absurd goals for myself and then spend even more time feeling guilty for not finding the strength to follow through on them. Needless to say that’s a lot of time and energy down the drain.

While resolutions are not my thing, I am a big fan of celebrating the New Year. I love putting the old year, with its disappointments and disasters, shortfalls and shortcomings, far behind me. I look forward to the new year as a clean slate, a tabula rasa — an unspoiled canvas upon which something astounding and beautiful can be created. Not often do we dare to think of ourselves as clean slates. Not often do we think ourselves capable of singing new songs!

Many strands of Christianity teach that when you place your trust in Jesus, an immediate and complete transformation takes place. This is the same strand of Christianity that often speaks of sin as “backsliding,” as if Christians are somehow cured of their sin and then relapse back into it. This is what the Apostle Paul wrote about becoming a “Christ-follower:”

So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! 2 Corinthians 5:17

There are two crucial points to sift out of this often-quoted text. First, creation is never complete. Something is being created in the world every moment of every day, whether it’s a baby, an idea or a computer chip. When we become new creations in Christ (for Lutherans, this journey starts at baptism), we become clean slates, not final products. We will be works-in-progress until the day we die. New Year’s resolutions assume that we can transform ourselves at the drop of a hat.

Second, God is the best artist I’ve ever known. He draws his designs on our clean slates when we give Him the slightest opportunity. God has plans for me that I can’t even imagine right now, and the same is true for you. I can’t transform myself into the person I have in mind when I think up New Year’s resolutions because I’m flat out not patient or strong or courageous enough. But God is. One of the most definitive lessons I’ve been learning in recent years is that I won’t grow very much in faith, hope and love unless I trust where God is leading me. Whether I’m making large or small decisions, “Not my will, but yours be done,” is a phrase that needs to be on the tip of my tongue, not the back of my mind.

When the calendar turns this year, we will enter a year of excitement at Prince of Peace. We will open our long-planned Preschool Infant and Toddler Care Center. We will welcome new families who are seeking this vital service in our community. We will discover the numerous possibilities for sharing God’s grace with them, some we know and many we don’t. A new song indeed!

A few New Year’s ago, there was a little three-year old girl who, like most children, was delighted with the whole holiday season. She raced around her church’s coffee-hour chaos excitedly greeting everyone she knew with an exuberant, “Merry Christmas, and a Happy New You!”

A happy new you? A happy new church? Is it really possible? Absolutely. Christ was born to make it so! I can’t wait to see what Jesus will do in my life and the lives of those I encounter in 2019. If we dare to place 2019 and each successive year in God’s hands, the possibilities are endless. I look forward to singing new songs with you.

Peace,

Pastor Rick

P.S. To my Prince of Peace family: Thank you for your extraordinary show of support during the Advent and Christmas seasons. Your willingness to share your gifts both behind the scenes and in our worship services has warmed my heart this year. Thank you to those who have blessed me with an array of special gifts. Most importantly, my thanks go out to all who continue to hold me up in prayer. I continue to consider myself blessed to be a part of this community of faith.

Rock 'n Roll Marathon Weekend Schedule

January 19 and 20

The Rock 'n Roll Marathon is an annual event in the life of our city. Due to multiple road closures around Prince of Peace on Sunday, January 20, we have adjusted our worship schedule for the weekend.

▼ Saturday, January 19, Rock 'n Roll Worship, 5 p.m.

Help us celebrate on "Rock 'n Roll Marathon" weekend with a special "Rock-n-Roll" worship service on Saturday night using Holden Evening Prayer. Don't miss this great opportunity to worship while the roads are open!

▼ Sunday, January 20

Worship at 9:30 a.m. (no Sunday School).

Congregational Meeting

Sunday, February 10, 11-12 p.m.

The Prince of Peace Lutheran Church 2019 annual congregation meeting will be held on Sunday, February 10, 2019 at 10:45 a.m. in the sanctuary. Matters to be considered at the meeting include:

1. Election of the President-elect, Vice President/Personnel and members of the Congregation Council.
2. Approval of congregation budget, including Arcadia Music Academy, church and preschool components, for calendar year 2019 plus January 2020.
3. Adoption of an amendment to Bylaw C11.02.01 Election of Officers. The amendment clarifies that the term of office for officers begins on 1 April, which is the same date that the term of office for Congregation Council members begins.
4. Adoption of amendments to Bylaw C9.04.1, Pastoral Sabbaticals. The amendments expand the window by one year in each direction from the seventh year when a sabbatical can be taken. It deletes continuing education time in the year of the sabbatical as a benefit, but continues use of funds budgeted for continuing education to be applied toward sabbatical expenses, at the council's prerogative.

A copy of the actual language of each bylaw amendment is available for review in the church office.

Souper Bowl of Caring (POP Style)

Sunday, February 3

On February 3, two professional football teams will square off on the Super Bowl in Atlanta, GA. On the same day, we will be collecting your loose change in big metal pots to give to the Arcadia Cares Food for Kidz Packathon. Please bring your loose change to worship and look for the "heavy metal" laden youth who will be ready to collect it. Together we can make a difference. This is an ESPECIALLY GOOD GIVING/LEARNING OPPORTUNITY FOR KIDS!

Prayers for Healing

January 13 and 27

Jesus said, "Those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life." John 4:14

Are you dealing with a new medical diagnosis? Living with chronic pain? Worried about someone in your life? Filled with unrelenting anxiety? Want to feel God working in the midst of your circumstance? You are invited to join us at the altar directly following worship and your pastors will pray with you about anything on your mind. God has so much to offer!

THE MESSENGER is printed monthly for the purpose of informing members and friends of upcoming events, for sharing good news about our members and for sharing the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ through word and action.

5th Annual Arcadia Cares Food for Kidz Packathon

Saturday, March 23, 2019

Make a New Year's Resolution to help out those less fortunate — including the hungry children right here in our neighborhood. And you can keep that resolution by getting involved with the Fifth Annual Arcadia Cares: Food for Kidz packathon on Saturday, March 23, 2019, hosted by Prince of Peace Lutheran Church. The entire Arcadia community is again being invited to participate in assembly-line packing of meals for children and their families locally and internationally.

The Food for Kidz model provides individually packed, highly nutritious and filling meals packed with rice, soy, vitamins and dehydrated vegetables. Each meal provides a day's worth of vitamins and nutrients to enable children to grow up strong and fight off diseases and sickness. These meals have a shelf life of three years.

The goal for 2019 is to pack 143,166 meals — which would bring our five-year total to 500,000. The majority of the meals packed will help fill the empty tummies of children and their families in the Phoenix metro area.

Donations Welcome

We need to raise $18,000 in order to purchase the necessary ingredients to meet our meals' goal. Please consider making a tax-deductible donation to support the effort. Any and all donations are welcome, regardless of the amount. Make your donation through Prince of Peace, indicating that it is for Arcadia Cares: Food for Kidz. Donations can be put in the Sunday offering plate (make sure to note "Packathon" on the memo line of your check), dropped off in the church office or made online through the Prince of Peace website. A sponsorship form is included with this newsletter.

Please support Prince of Peace's major outreach to our community and a very worthy cause by participating in and/or donating to the 2019 packathon. Thank you.

The Elderberries are in the process of planning an outing on Wednesday morning, February 27. Watch the Sunday bulletin and the February Messenger for details but for now just save the date.

Our Sew and Tie group dropped off 11 handmade quilts at Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest. The quilts will be given to seniors in need.

Compassion Central POP's Visitation and Care Ministry

Throughout the Bible we are told to take care of one another. In James we are told to pray for the sick and anoint them with oil. It brings the community together with each other and with God. Make sure orphans and widows are cared for. In other words, we are to be caregivers for one another.

We are continuing to develop a ministry here at Prince of Peace to do those things. A group of people has come together and is reaching out to those who are in need of care, regardless of their situation. If you have need of care, please contact Pastor Paul at 602.740.7187 or the church office, 480.945.9537, to let us know. If you are being called by God to share your care-giving gift, please let Pastor Paul know.

Preschool News

2019 School Year

The new year is full of exciting things at POP Preschool! We will open registration for next year's preschool program on January 2 to current preschool families as well as POP church members.

Our new infant/toddler program is on track to open in fall 2019! We are anxiously watching as progress is quickly being made on our campus. We are so excited to be on the verge of offering this meaningful service to our Arcadia community.

Registration for this program will be available to our currently enrolled families and POP church families a month prior to opening to the public. We are compiling a list of people who are interested in the program and we will be sending out e-mail updates with information and registration dates. If you are interested in enrolling your child in the new program, please let us know via e-mail or in person and we will be sure that you receive a registration form when the time comes.

We are honored and overjoyed by the support and excitement we have experienced from so many of you. Thank you, thank you for your continued prayers and support!

Christmas Program and Nativity Cast

Our Preschool Christmas programs took place on schedule and they were fabulous! Each class performed songs for a sanctuary full of teary-eyed parents, family and friends. This is always such a special time for our preschool families and we are grateful that we are able to share God's love with these young children.

In addition to teaching and practicing songs with her class, for many years teacher Alice Fuchs also assembled a nativity cast to perform during our Christmas programs. This is such a special addition to our programs and just another way these children are learning the true meaning of Christmas. Many thanks to teacher Alice for all she does!!

Prince of Peace, 60 Years!

Our next event is the Dessert Fest on February 10. It will be preceded by a concert by Desert Bells International under the direction of Kay Cook. Stay tuned for details. (For many years the Dessert Fest was part of Prince of Peace's Christmas festivities and the committee is excited to bring it back.

Making A Difference for 60 Years

by Beth Schneider

Hospice is considered to be the model for compassionate end-of-life care. Patients who enter hospice are generally expected to live for six months or less. However, this does not mean that hospice care ends if the patient lives longer than six months. Too many patients enter hospice care with only days or hours to live. This is unfortunate because early enrollment generally allows patients to live better and to live longer. Hospice care is based on the belief that everyone has the right to die pain free and with dignity. Furthermore, families are entitled to receive the necessary counseling, respite care, and practical support to allow patients to do so. Services are available to patients of any age, race, religion, or illness. Hospice is not just for cancer patients. Hospice's focus is on caring, not curing.

Hospice provides team-oriented support which includes medical care, pain management, and emotional and spiritual support tailored to an individual patient's need. The teams usually consist of the patient's personal physician, the hospice physician, nurses, home health aides, social workers, clergy, trained volunteers, and speech, physical and occupational therapists, if needed. Care may be provided in the patient's home with family members as the primary caregivers, in a free-standing hospice center, in a hospital, or in a nursing home or other long-term care facility. Hospice also includes respite care in a care facility for a period of time to provide a patient's caregiver(s) a break. Bereavement care and counseling is often provided to surviving family and friends.

To receive hospice services, a hospice physician and a second physician, often the patient's primary care physician or specialist, must certify that the patient meets the specific medical eligibility criteria. If a patient lives longer than six months but his/her condition continues to decline, he/she may be re-certified for additional time in hospice care. If the patient's condition improves, he/she may be discharged from hospice care but is eligible for hospice care again if his/her condition begins to decline. Services are covered by Medicare, Medicaid, private insurance, and managed care organizations. Hospice care does not cover treatment intended to cure a terminal illness or illness unrelated to the terminal illness, prescription drugs to cure the terminal illness or an unrelated illness, room and board in a nursing home or hospice residential facility, care in an emergency room, inpatient facility care, or ambulance transportation unless arranged by the hospice team.

Most cities and towns will have several hospice providers. Different hospice organizations provide different services. When selecting a hospice provider, evaluate the different organizations to find the one that best meets your needs. Some questions to ask include: Is the program Medicare-certified and licensed by the state? Who comprises the hospice team? What services are offered to the patient and to the family? How are hospice services provided after hours? How are pain and other symptoms managed? And is the program covered by Medicare or other insurance?
